

---

The entertainment given at the Opera-house last night by Mark Twain and George. W. Cable was well attended, notwithstanding the cold weather, and was highly pleasing to those presents.

---