

The following are the attractions offered by the Student's Lecture Association for the coming season. It will be noted that the list comprises some of the most noted platform orators of America, and the association is to be congratulated upon its success in securing so many famous personages. The list is as follows: Hon. Geo. L. Wendling, November 15th, subject "Hamlet." Prof. Richard A. Proctor, F. R. S., of England, November. During December Samuel L. Clemens, "Mark Twain" will be sandwiched in as an extra, Geo. W. Cable being the regular. January, Geo. Alfred Townsend, "Gath" of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and Hon. Carl Schurz. February, Hon. William Parsons, of Ireland. March, Thos. Nast, of Harper's Weekly as an extra, and Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.
