THE HOLY LAND EXCURSION.

LETTER FROM "MADE TWAIN."

[Editorial Commentaries and Announcements]

[Text begins with a letter from a traveler named "Made Twain"]

Sanctuary of Emmaus — The Bom of the Poor. — The Poor of Emmaus.

The poor of Emmaus are a peculiar people. They are scattered throughout the country, living in small huts and caves, and working hard to support themselves. They are content with what they have, and are always ready to help their neighbors in time of need. The sanctuary of Emmaus is a place of pilgrimage for thousands of Christians every year. The poor of Emmaus are a reminder of the importance of charity and the need to assist those who are less fortunate.

[Further text discussing the history and significance of the sanctuary of Emmaus]

[The letter concludes with a personal account of the writer's experiences]

The Poor of Emmaus.

[Closing remarks and reflections on the trip to the Holy Land]